If you are ordering food or drink please make us aware of any allergies or intolerances you may have or any persons in your party may have. Your safety is our greatest concern - allergies can be life threatening and we ask you to consider the risks before placing your table's order. We are proud of our service, products and relationships we have with our suppliers. You should be aware that with so many ingredients and the possibility of mistakes due to human error, we cannot guarantee that any dish is completely allergen free. Our allergen guide is available behind the bar and will allow you to see all of the 14 declarable allergens and which dishes they are in but does not specify ingredients.
